Top Ten reasons to be a LAXBAT:

10. "Mini-camps" will be during the off-season and will not interfere with your High School team.
9. NCAA college coaches will teach some select "mini-camps" for our LAXBATS
 - The weekend of Nov 15th & 16th Alicia Groveston, the Gannon University Woman's Lacrosse coach will be working with us. She is looking for 12 seniors to bring to her team for the fall of 2009. Feel free to contact her in advance. We anticipate bringing in more NCAA coaches to help us out throughout the season! grovesto001@gannon.edu ; www.gannon.edu/
8. Tournaments/ Travel are available, optional, and unfortunately subject to change. Our tentative plans are:
 - Winter tournament in San Diego (Jan 10-11, 2009)
<http://www.adrenalinelacrosse.com/index.php?highschoolchallenge>
 - 2009 All American Showcase-Champions Cup (June 12-14, 2009)
 - Summer tournament in Southern California (July 2009)
 - Other possible tournaments and games (in and out of state)
7. ATX will help you to stay in "lacrosse shape" year round.
6. We can't get you recruited - you have to do that, but we can guide you along the way. Recruiting information and support will be provided.
5. Lots of local as well as out-of-state playing opportunities. How about UT?
4. You will be monitored throughout the year by ATX coaches. Like it or not - I am coming to watch you play!
3. Individual evaluations available by ATX coaches.
2. Speed and Agility training at H.I.T. center is included

AND

1. The number one reason to become a LAXBAT is to be a part of a truly special team made up of wonderful friends and creating memories that will be with you throughout your life.
